

French course for teachers of French as a foreign language

(FLE - français langue étrangère)

You are a FFL teacher (French as a Foreign Language) but French is not your mother tongue. You wish to improve and refine your knowledge of general French, broaden your French cultural knowledge and discover new pedagogical methods from a school having obtained the quality label "Qualité français langue étrangère".

We propose an intensive total immersion course in Provence, one of the most magnificent regions of Southern France. We welcome you in a unique setting: a former monastery, renovated with style and comfort, tucked away in the superb nature of the `Parc Régional du Verdon' in Moustiers-Ste-Marie. You will find a warm hospitality and the best of Provençal cooking.

Our approach : a total immersion in French, emphasizing on communicative skills ; small groups ; interesting activities.

Objectives of the morning sessions general French

- to strengthen your capacities to fluently take part in any discussion, to express yourself in French with nuance and to be able to discuss in a clear and fluent way;
- to widen your knowledge of idiomatic expressions and common sentence structures and be able to easily put them into practice;
- to familiarize yourself with different accents and language registers;
- to understand without too much effort media broadcastings as well as any rapidly spoken conversation;
- to improve your pronunciation.
- to update your knowledge of daily life in France.

Objectives of the workshops "class techniques" and alternatively a regional discovery + evening activities

- workshops "class techniques": to exchange pedagogical approaches, in particular those of the morning classes.
  - A few examples:
    - literature, chansons' and cinema as tools to stimulate oral production;
