

French immersion courses for expats - 2021

... or for anyone planning to live in France or a French speaking country

School established in 1984 – Government quality label FLE

You are either working or often vacationing in France or you are living in our beautiful region. That's why you may wish to refresh and improve your knowledge in French.

We propose an intensive total immersion course in Moustiers-Ste-Marie, 1h15 from Aix-en-Provence and 40 minutes from Manosque, in the heart of the 'Parc Régional du Verdon'.

We welcome you in a unique setting: a former monastery, renovated with style and comfort, tucked away in the superb nature. You will find a warm hospitality and the best of Provençal cooking for gourmets.

Course general French

Mornings (°), classes in mini groups of level, 3 to 6 per group.

Practical linguistic workshops

Afternoons, depending on the day, French course in mini groups on topics of daily life: telephonic conversation, visit to the doctor, interaction with the French administration or contractors, writing letters and mails etc.

One-to-one tuition

3 sessions of 45 minutes per week, to work on your specific needs with a teacher.

Concept of our courses

- Total immersion courses (residential or semi-residential). French practice from dawn till dusk. One, two or three weeks.
- Focus on communicative skills (oral expression and comprehension).
- Intensive courses in a professional and yet relaxed way, to encourage the pleasure of learning.
- Permanent guidance by our pedagogical team, convivial meals in their presence to put your newly acquired knowledge in practice and to speak French in a more fluent way.
- Courses for adults only.
- Elementary till advanced level, from A2 to C1, according to the CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference). Minimum level: A2 in the process of being acquired, our courses are not meant for beginners.

(°) On Monday, the course of general French is given in the afternoon. See programme next page.
